A Spark of Magic

SUE ROSS, COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE MEMBER

It's easy to think that events that have become a part of our social fabric at the Lake were always here, but that's never the case and to think that misses the magic...the spark that ignited someone's imagination enough to get them going on an idea and then pull others into an ever-evolving, creative community-building process. When I spoke with Carol Hastie about Family Day, I was surprised to learn that she was not the first person to steer this event. By my recollection she had always been at the helm.

"It was so long ago, I'm not really sure who started it," she recalled. "I think someone from the Women's Auxiliary had suggested it would be a fun idea as a part of our 50th Anniversary celebration back in 1986 and that Eileen Opfer ran it the first few years. "I did work on it in the beginning," Eileen remembered. "I had a lot of help and it was fun!" She went on to describe the multitude of events that took place during the day from boat and swim races to sand castles, lawn games, a talent show and even fireworks at Beach 2. "After two years I just couldn't do it anymore and I asked Carol if she would take it over. She's the one who deserves all the credit for keeping it going," Eileen said. Carol insists that it never could have happened without all of the volunteers that worked along with her and that the event just evolved over time. Now it is an annual happening in our community that seems to have a life of its own.

The Concert Series is another example of an ever-evolving activity that Club members have enjoyed for years now. That was the brain-child of Michael Gelfand who started talking to members Louise and Randy Staley at their kids' soccer game one day. "Louise was wearing a CBGB sweatshirt and that got us talking about how great it would be if we could bring the kinds of musicians that performed at that Club to the Lake," he recalled. It took a few years to get the idea off the ground and by the time the first concert took place, more volunteers had joined the effort. Now he estimates that about 20 members (8 of them teenagers) are behind the scenes making it happen. "We've put together 20 to 25 shows over the years and I feel like it has been a huge success. People seem to love it," Michael said. Just as Carol sights the evolution of Family Day, Michael talks about how the Concert Series has changed. "We started indoors and then after a while added the concerts on the lawn and then started offering food. Events like these have to change with time to stay interesting."

And then there is Pickleball, a once unknown sport that Club member Bill Beardsley lobbied hard for years ago at a Voting Board meeting. Bill got hooked on the game when Dorie Zarr and some others introduced him to it. They were playing on a temporary court that had to be set up each time they wanted to play, and Bill came before the Voting Board with a proposal to create permanent courts at Ballfield #2. It took some doing, but it got done and now it is one of the most sought-after activities we have.

Active members like these, and so many more, make our community all that it is. As we close out another year on this beautiful mountaintop, let's take a moment to be thankful for the multitude of people, past and present, who have lit the sparks that started the magic that became the events we all get to enjoy!

The Vernon Rotary Club Handed Out Dictionaries at Rolling Hills Primary School

ROSEMARY POLHEMUS

Recently, a few members of the Vernon Rotary Club, visited Rolling Hills Primary School, to hand out dictionaries to all the 3rd graders. The dictionaries are for the 3rd graders to keep and use throughout their school career. It is the first and most powerful reference tool a child should own. Its usefulness goes beyond spelling, and pronunciation – the dictionary increases self-reliance and resourcefulness – inspired by the maxim “Look it up” and at the same time expanding their vocabulary.

The teacher benefits from knowing that their students have consistent access to a tool for homework and in-class explorations. We feel a child cannot do his or her best work without a dictionary.

Children deserve the best teachers and resources. If we set our sights on anything less, we will be disappointed with the results.

Goodwill Fund Book Sale

CAROLYN ACKER, COORDINATOR

The Goodwill Fund Book Sale on November 5, 2022, drew many community members out to share their love of reading. Thank you to all who donated their books to the sale. We received over 2,000 books from the community! A steady stream of readers visited our tables and shared their favorite books and authors as they shopped for new treasures. Many books were sold and the remaining books were donated.

The sale never would have succeeded without all of the volunteers who worked tirelessly to sort, move, set up and sell all those books. They were incredible! Thanks also to the volunteers who so willingly took the remaining books to various donation centers. Finally, the Goodwill Fund Committee would like to thank Joyce Healy and the Seniors Club for inviting us to hold our book sale in conjunction with the Fall Craft Fair.

Senior Club News

JOYCE HEALY, PRESIDENT, SENIOR CLUB

Greetings! "Are you ready?" "Yes, I'm ready..."

This is from an oldie...a song from the 60s, do you remember the rest? Are you ready? Yes, I'm ready to fall in love... to fall in love with you."

Well, my intent was not to ask if you're ready to fall in love, but ARE YOU READY FOR THE HOLIDAYS???? I applaud loud and long IF you ARE ready for the holidays. I'm half ready with my shopping. I found my stash of new Christmas cards I stowed away last year. That's next on the agenda. We'll go Christmas tree hunting very soon and tag a tree on a farm to return in 2 weeks to cut it down. This German kid maintains our family's tradition with decorating a real tree for Weihnachten. Love being on a tree farm, finding a nearly perfect tree, and when it comes home there's usually a bird's nest tucked among the branches. And what a wonderful scent that fills the room!

May you have wonderful holiday traditions that you cherish and maintain. May you teach your grandkids some beautiful traditions. May you truly enjoy the serenity of your cozy, warm home decorated lovingly and lit by a glowing tree and glowing hearts. Peace, love, joy to you all.

Senior Club activities coming up:

1. S/C Holiday & Christmas Dinner/Dance

Date: Wednesday, Dec. 14 from 6-10 pm (may be in the Lake Room or may be in the Seckler Room) Our numbers are increasing for this wonderful, fun evening. We'll have a catered buffet, live music from The Stragglers Band for dancing and toe tapping, libations, a mini-tricky-tray and lots of good times. For our S/C members it's $10 pp and $15 for guests. YOU MUST CONTACT ME ASAP IF YOU WISH TO ATTEND. (845-544-3749).

2. The calendar for 2023 has been created and you'll get copies ASAP.

3. January 11, 2023: New Year's Welcome luncheon at Noon in the Lake Room; sign up for this, too.

4. February 15 - St. Valentine's Luncheon at Noon in the Lake Room.

Questions? Give me a call, text, leave a message, try using a carrier pigeon (no, not really) but I'm here to help in any way I can. Love ya, Joyce H.

2022 Craft Fair and Book Sale Huge Success

DORI ZARR AND ROE HALL, ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT/EVENTS COORDINATOR

What a wonderful fair it was. Many resident crafters and artists came out to display and sell their handmade treasures. Among them were Bruce Young, with several works of art, Kristin Dalelio of Kitchen's Crumb with delicious crumb cakes and buns, Karen McNamara with her jewelry creations and Joyce Healy, event coordinator, with wonderful wreaths and decor. Other vendor offerings were tile art, cross stitch, decoupage on cutting boards, wine glasses, candle holders, wood burning ornaments and more, too many to mention.

The first book sale took in over 2,000 donated books and approximately $500 in sales. Any leftover books were donated to the Goodwill Store, Karen Ann Quinlan Hospice in Newton and children of local migrant workers. See full article by Carolyn Acker.
